"Fan land", It was Pad-dy Mc Cann, and To her each day he'd say:
moon shines, As a plaintive gui-tar chimes, He sings this strain a - gain:
CHORUS
p–f
We'll build a lit-tle bung-a-low, Right here where the o-cean breez-es blow, No more will I sail the sea, And I'll ev-en try to learn to like your tea;
Though I am not of no-ble sta-tion, There'll be a roy-al cel-e-bra-tion
